Administrative/Biographical History

In 1979 the Greeley City Council started bidding for a cable television company in Greeley, Colorado and in the fall of 1989 Greeley Television Channel 8 was launched with “The UNC Football Report”. In 1990 the local News Brief news program was added to the Channel 8 programs. From there, Channel 8 began airing local sports, news and events, including Locker Room, Week in Review, Talk with the Mayor, Inside Greeley and high school sports.

Scope and Content

This collection visually documents news, people and events in Weld County, with a focus on Greeley, Colorado, from 1989 to 2004. Programs in this collection include Community Focus Reports, Sports Community Focus Reports, Images, Inside Greeley, Kristi’s Stories, Joe Glen Show, Locker Room, Newsbriefs, Sports Brief, Talk with the Mayor, and Week-in-Review. The programs and recordings are held on BetaCam, U-matic and VHS tape carriers, recorded according to the name of the program or subject matter of the recordings. Several recording dates may be contained on one carrier. In some rare cases, two different programs may be contained on the same carrier.

Note: Not all recordings have been viewed to verify content. Only regularly mentioned persons are recorded in the names section of this finding aid.

System of Arrangement	Some original order could be established from existing logs and scripts included in the collection and these recordings have been kept together as much as possible. No original order could be determined from the remainder of the recordings and these have been organized in an imposed order according to program title or subject matter and dated as much as possible.
