Administrative/Biographical History

Millard "Skeets" Darwin Calvin (1916-1999), life-long Greeley area resident. Raised on family farm near Kuner. Began photography career in Greeley at Gardner Studio about 1940. Joined U.S. Army Air Force (76th Bomber Squadron 1st Air Corps) March 11, 1942. Photographer for the Army Air Force during World War II serving in both Europe and the Pacific. Honorable discharge 1946. Post-war career: photo journalist for Greeley Tribune 1946-1950; Greeley Rodeo photographer 1950-1975; campus photographer for Colorado State College (CSC) 1956; photo journalist Greeley Journal 1968-1975; freelance photographer 1976-1999; photography show 1992. Married Juanita Goodwin-Cain 1948 and adopted Larry Cain, Juanita's son from a previous marriage, about 1949. Unknown date of divorce. Married Loretta Ann Droesler 1956. Received GED 1952. Member of Greeley VFW Post 2121 1946-1999 and commander 1954-1965, 1984/85, and 1990/91. Member of several various outdoor clubs. Relevant other employment: Bartender at Dutch's 1971 and Swamper at Roasty's 1980-1999.

Carol Rein Shwayder (1931-2010), long-time resident of Greeley, Colorado. Produced multi-volume publication titled "Weld County Old and New" on the history and people/families of Weld County.

JoAnna Luth Stull (1955-), Weld County resident since 1981 and friend and fellow genealogist of Carol Rein Shwayder. She worked at Kersey as the Interim Town and Court Clerk in 1999. JoAnna worked as interpretive staff at the City of Greeley Museums from 1994-1996 and came on as regular staff in August of 1999. She became Registrar for the Museums in 2005.

Scope and Content

Photographs, negatives, slides and documents related to the photography career and personal photography pursuits of Skeets Calvin. Major topics include images taken during World War II while Calvin was overseas in Europe and the Pacific; buildings and events in Weld County or that affected Weld County, such as water projects in Larimer County; personal vacation trips; and portrait photography in various settings, weddings, businesses, homes, etc.

System of Arrangement

Folders were divided into broad topics of "Events," "Places," and "People." Material types are kept together under these topics. Items alphabetized according to subtitle and then to the topical title of the folder. People's names are alphabetized by last name when present. When known, creator's titles for folders were utilized. 3-D objects have been removed and stored with other 3-D materials.
